MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Brigade Policy Memorandum - Senior Reserve Officer Training Corps (SROTC) Relationships with Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (JROTC)

1. References.

- a. CCR 145-2, Junior Reserve Officer's Training Corps Program Organization, Administration, Operation Training and Support, 1 July 2007.
- b. CCR 145-8-3, Junior Reserve Officer's Training Corps Program Organizational Inspection Program and Checklists, 10 July 2007.
- c. Reference memorandum, 4th Brigade dated 1 June 2009, Annual Operational and Training Guidance – SY 2009 -2010.

2. Purpose. To provide guidance in order to establish Senior Reserve Officer Training Corps (SROTC) program support relationships to Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps programs. This policy applies to all SROTC programs in the 4th Brigade Area of Responsibility.

3. Intent. SROTC programs will be affiliated with 1 or more JROTC programs within the 4th Brigade Area of Responsibility. It is my desire that these relationships be mutually beneficial to the highest degree possible. Attached is a list that details the SROTC and JROTC affiliations. This list is based on historical relationships in most cases, but new relationships are also outlined. The new relationships are due to the expansion of JROTC and the transformation of Cadet Command. Every effort has been made to limit the travel distances between supporting SROTC program and the affiliated JROTC programs while maintaining the historical relationships.

4. SROTC Battalions. Responsible for support functions as listed below:

- a. Conduct the annual supply inspections for each affiliated JROTC unit.
- b. Visit affiliated units at least once each year (can be the supply inspection).
- c. Host combined competitive events if your SROTC mission is not compromised.
- d. Assign a JROTC Liaison Officer (LNO), who acts as the POC for JROTC instructors seeking assistance or support from SROTC programs and provide that name to 4th Brigade JROTC.

ATCC-DD/19 January 2010

SUBJECT: Brigade Policy Memorandum - Senior Reserve Officer Training Corps (SROTC) Relationships with Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (JROTC)

e. Assist Fourth Brigade JROTC with formal inspections and unit visits if requested by this headquarters and assets are available.

5. These support functions are not meant to be all inclusive. In some instances individual programs may request other types of support. You should consider these requests on a case by case basis. If there are any questions regarding support contact the Fourth Brigade Chief of JROTC.

6. For further or additional guidance pertaining to this policy, contact Mr. John Sovine, Chief, 4th Brigade JROTC, (910) 396-4066, DSN 236-4066, email john.sovine@usacc.army.mil.
